REPORT.

To the Honorable the Senate of Maryland :

The Committee upon the Library respectfully report, that all the items of expenditure, connected with the Library, have been made by the officer in charge thereof, in conformity with the law and usage appertaining to said department, and in view of the action already taken by the General Assembly, at its present session, to augment the fund connected therewith, they have not deemed a more extended report necessary. A special report thereof, and the suggestions therein set forth
